All farmers who own trucks have received applications for certificates of war necessity. These certificates must be secured if farmers are to continue operating their trucks. The applications should be filled out and returned by farmers as soon as possible. Farmers wanting help in filling out the applications can get it from their county USDA War Boards. These boards have set aside three days, Oct 22, 23, and 24 to help farmers. If you want help get in touch with the war board at your county AAA office. There will be at least one registration place in each county and more in most counties.
